

Native American Heritage Month Celebration

November 8, 2016

Fontana Lewis Library and Technology Center

8437 Sierra Avenue, Fontana, CA 92335

3:00 p.m.– 7:00 p.m.

Registration begins at 2:30 p.m.

Event will Include:

* Educational Workshops Addressing the Behavioral Health Needs of Native Americans *
Cultural Performances * Vendors * Opportunity Drawings * Crafts * Face Painting

This event recognizes November as Native American Heritage Month. The event is a collaboration between the Department of Behavioral Health's Native American Awareness Subcommittee of the Cultural Competency Advisory Committee, Fontana Lewis Library and Technology Center, Riverside-San Bernardino County Indian Health, Inc.- Native American Resource Center and the University of Redlands Native Student Programs.

Please R.S.V.P to: cultural_competency@dbh.sbcounty.gov

For questions, interpretation services or requests for disability-related accommodations, please contact Patricia Verduzco at (909) 388-0864, via email at patricia.verduzco@dbh.sbcounty.gov or 7-1-1 for TTY users.

Please request accommodations at least 7 business days prior to the event.

www.SBCounty.gov/dbh

Rev. 11/2/16